This exhibit, Go Figure, showcases the people and critters of Arizona. Join the Guild on Friday, September 5 from 5:00 – 7:00 p.m. for an exhibit opening with refreshments and entertainment. Admission to the museum and the exhibit is free. The exhibit runs through October 5.

PERFORMANCES at the MUSEUM

The Guitarnauts, Saturday, 9/13; 7 p.m.

Alice Cooper's Solid Rock teen center attracts over one hundred teenagers per day with free music and dance lessons. Solid Rock's "Proof Is in the Pudding" annual young musicians' competition has over fifty bands and singers sign up each year. They asked to have a few of their winners perform at the Tempe History Museum. The Guitarnauts are the winners of the 2013 "Proof is in the Pudding" competition. They are a progressive group of multiple guitar players and master students at the Arizona Conservatory of Arts and Academics. They are led by Ward Aycock. This is not your typical guitar ensemble! Admission to the museum and the performance is free.

THIRD THURSDAY at the MUSEUM

The Tempe Sound, Thursdays, 9/18, 10/16, 11/20; 7 p.m.

The Tempe History Museum hosts a free evening lecture series every Third Thursday in the fall and spring. This season's theme focuses on the Tempe music scene. Join the museum for a free cup of coffee and learn about the history and the impact of Tempe-based music. Topics will include territorial brass bands, Waylon Jennings, the Arizona Music Hall of Fame and local alternative radio stations.

PERFORMANCES at the MUSEUM

Composition Competition II, Saturday, 9/20; 7 p.m.

Classical Revolution PHX presents the second annual Composition Competition premiering new pieces of music written by composers living in Arizona. All works will be performed live and judged by an expert panel and the audience to determine a winner and runner-up. So join us to hear these world premiere works and enjoy a fun evening of "American Idol meets classical music."

Admission to the museum and the performance is free. Sponsored by the Tempe Historical Society.

PERFORMANCES at the MUSEUM

The Jon Rauhouse Orchestra, Saturday, 10/11; 7 p.m.

Jon "Orchid Fingers" Rauhouse, a Tempe High graduate, started playing the banjo in 1977 on a dare and played in a bluegrass band for several years. In the late 1970s he started playing the pedal steel guitar. He spent nearly a decade as a sideman in the Phoenix area, playing with every band he could. Lately he has been touring the world with Neko Case, a heart on her sleeve "country noir" singer. Now after four-plus decades into a career as a musical journeyman, Jon enjoys local outings with the Jon Rauhouse Orchestra. You'll hear everything from big band to torch songs to country swing and some of the best pedal steel guitar west of Texas. Admission to the museum and the performance is free.

PERFORMANCES at the MUSEUM

Halloween with the Tetra String Quartet, Friday, 10/24; 7 p.m.

Screechy screams and hissing cats, what other spooky Halloween sounds will be issuing forth from this free concert? This show will take you through a world of monsters, ghosts, ghouls, goblins, vampires, werewolves and witches. Scary? Yes, indeed, and perfect for the season. Admission to the museum and the performance is free.

Exhibit Opening

The Tempe Sound, Friday, 11/14; 5:30 p.m.

The Tempe History Museum has long recognized the importance of local music and since 2010, we have been hosting free local music performances on a regular basis. We have become more involved in the local music scene, and so the timing is right to produce an exhibit that pays tribute to local music. "The Tempe Sound" features some of the community's favorite pieces of Tempe music memorabilia, including guitars, t shirts and posters from notable Tempe bands like the Gin Blossoms, Meat Puppets, Dead Hot Workshop, Jetzons, and many more. Also included are artifacts from famous Tempe music venues like the Sun Club, Nita's Hideaway, and Long Wong's. At the exhibit opening on November 14, listen to music by well-known Tempe-based bands and attend a ribbon cutting at about 6 p.m. Admission is free.

PERFORMANCES at the MUSEUM

Thanks for Songwriters, Saturday, 11/22; 7 p.m.

Want to hear your favorite band do their songs acoustically? Want to know the meaning behind a specific song? Well, this event is for you! In this Thanksgiving season, we humbly gather to thank local songwriters and learn how they write those catchy songs.

Join host Carol Pacey with other Arizona songwriters as they share their music and the stories behind the music. Carol Pacey fronts the Honey Shakers, one of a very few female-fronted, all-original Americana rock bands in the Tempe area. Also scheduled to appear:

Dave Vitagliano formed the band SQUIDDOG with the goal of combining the edgy, R & B rock riffs of old friend Tim McAnally with Dave's poetry and tunesmithing.

Nolan McKelvey has traversed all roads of Americana: from the pavement of alt-country, to the gravel of bluegrass, to the dusty trails of outlaw-country. He currently performs his own songs solo and with the band Muskellunge, a contemporary bluegrass group.

Jim Bachmann has been entertaining listeners with a mellow, easy voice and honest and wise songwriting. With one ear on Billy Joe Shaver, and the other on Kris Kristofferson, Bachmann's music blends Americana with outlaw-country.
